

Gifting Policy

GIFTING POLICY

At Al Noor Hospital, we uphold the highest standards of integrity and ethical business practices. In line with our core values and corporate governance principles, our employees are strictly prohibited from accepting gifts or gratuities from business partners, vendors, and clients.

We kindly request all our business associates to respect this 'No Gifts' policy and refrain from offering gifts in any form, whether tangible or perishable. Your trust and continued collaboration are the most valued expressions of appreciation.

Thank you for your understanding and support in maintaining a transparent and ethical work environment.
